LONG SHOTS SWEEP THE CARD

Four Winners Ranged at Odds of 12 to 1 to 30 to 1, and the Public Had a Heavy Losing Day-Wes Won the New Rochelle Stake Handily-Miller Rides Wel. Again.

New York, Oct. 17 .- Long shots practically swept the card at Belmont Park today, the books clearing up, with few exceptions, and the general public going home with pockets turned inside out. Form reversals and racing luck were responsible for the upsets, which were the most surprising in many years.

The most shocking blow to the talent ame in the running of the Champagne Stakes, seven furlongs, when Woodford Clay's Kentucky Beau, 12 to 1, suddenly came to life, and beat W. H. Daniel, even money favorite, by a length and a half, in the fast time of 1:23 4-5. In nis previous race, Kentucky Beau was beaten twelve lengths by W. H. Daniel on that occasion the former colt had lit e or no speed, after being interfered with at the start. But he was a wild horse to-day, and with Miller up, he was played at the last moment by the wise insiders. James R. Keene's Ballot, who went back to 3 to 1, was third, three lengths away. Six favorites lost, and Miller handled two winners, a second, and a third. The weather was chilly and the crowd numbered not more than 10,000 persons.

As it is ferty years since "The Black Crook" was first produced, it has become a novelty again, and will be next week's offering at the Majestic. A fine spectacular production is promised. The piece differs greatly from the usual spectacle inasmuch as the proverbial balchorus.

Williams' "Imperial Burlesquers" come to the New Lyceum. The company this season is on a larger scale than ever before. Among the favorites may be mentioned Frank Murphy and Jack Magec, well-known as laugh producers; Miss Julia Heitzman, vocalist; Zimmer, the juggler; Gray and Graham, the military maid and the bell boy: Deonzo and Mc-Donald, aerobatic comedians, and Pauline Moran, who will be remembered for her clever work last season
